NEW WATERFRONT HOTEL IN CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA REVEALS A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE OF AMERICA'S TOP CITY

One of Only Two Leading Hotels of the World in South Carolina, The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina Features Stunning Views of Downtown Charleston, Charleston Harbor and Marina, the Arthur Ravenel Bridge and Patriot's Point

CHARLESTON, S.C. – As if Condé Nast Traveler and Travel + Leisure's top city in American couldn't get any better, a new luxury 92-room boutique hotel and member of The Leading Hotels of the World opened its doors in late 2016 to provide another perspective of this charming, award-winning coastal city. Balconies in every guest room provide glorious morning vistas and spectacular sunsets overlooking the water. As one of only two hotels in South Carolina to be part of Leading Hotels, The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina brings high style to the Lowcountry through original art, sophisticated interiors and a luxe environment that appeals to a wide range of travelers.

“After many years in the making, we're delighted to offer a luxury resort experience unlike anything else in Charleston,” said Nick Saltmarsh, General Manager of The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina. “Our number one priority is to deliver an unforgettable stay for guests with attentive service, authentic Charleston experiences and luxury accommodations that create a strong sense of place.”

Highlights of The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina include:

Southern-inspired architectural design that complements the unobstructed sightlines of Charleston Harbor and downtown Charleston.

Décor celebrating Lowcountry design aesthetics and Charleston's rich maritime history, presenting a comfortable, retreat-like setting.

Original art throughout the hotel by Charleston artist, John Carroll Doyle.

Ninety-two beautifully appointed guestrooms with wood floors and custom-crafted furnishings averaging 535 square feet with expansive balconies overlooking Charleston Harbor.

Two heated pools and sprawling pool deck complete with full-service private cabanas, fire pits, Jacuzzi and dining options.

Estuary Spa with an array of treatments from deep tissue massages to facials and waxing.

Family friendly amenities including the Mini Mariner's Kid's Camp, Cinema Saturdays in the 30-seat private movie theater and 750-square foot accommodations with a separate bedroom for the children.

Easy access to Charleston's historic district via water taxi or on board the complimentary resort trolley. Activities including golf, yachting, sailing, inshore and offshore fishing, bike trails and beach games. Three on-site dining options including Charleston Harbor Fish House, an award-winning restaurant overlooking Charleston Harbor.

The 30-seat Crescent Movie Theater and 20-seat Palmetto Executive Boardroom outfitted for board retreats, executive meetings, multigenerational family meetings and incentive programs.

Ten inspiring wedding venues for parties ranging from 15 to 500.

The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina is located 7 miles from downtown Charleston at 20 Patriots Point Rd. in Mount Pleasant, S.C. 29464. Rates start at $249 per night.
