A NEW WATERFRONT HOTEL IN CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA PROVIDES A STUNNING BACKDROP FOR MEETINGS AND CORPORATE RETREATS

From Meetings on a WWII Aircraft Carrier, to Presentations in the 30-seat Private Movie Theater, The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina Creates Extraordinary Experiences for Meetings, Executives Retreats and Incentive Groups

CHARLESTON, S.C. – When companies plan their business gatherings in Charleston, South Carolina, they know they will get a taste of the city’s rich history, charm and coastal ambiance. But when they step foot into the newest hotel, The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina, they will also experience a level of service that caters to the culture of their organization with customized events and tailored itineraries. The hotel’s commitment to hosting only one corporate group at a time ensures attention to detail and to helping each business achieve their end goals. Innovative meeting venues and nautical infused interiors are a refreshing departure from the typical hotel conference room. In addition, outstanding views of downtown Charleston, combined with views of the harbor and marina, the Arthur Ravenel bridge and USS Yorktown provide a backdrop for creativity, inspiration and extraordinary experiences for groups of all sizes.

The new luxury 92-room boutique hotel and member of The Leading Hotels of the World opened its doors in late 2016 and has already been recognized as one of the Best New Hotels in the World by Fodor’s – only one of four hotels in the United States to be honored with this impressive distinction.

The resort’s waterfront location and proximity to the largest marina in the Carolinas, lends itself to an array of teambuilding activities and unique meeting venues such as private yacht excursions, sailing lessons, fishing expeditions and even meetings set among vintage airplanes on the USS Yorktown, a WWII aircraft carrier. Kayaking and Stand Up Paddleboarding (SUP) are available at nearby Sullivan Island’s Beach as well as on-property waterfront yoga classes on the sandy beach or pier. Indoors, the views are just as thought provoking with a 30-seat private movie theater featuring surround sound and leather recliners and a stunning, specially-commissioned 20-seat table in the Palmetto Executive Boardroom. Larger groups can be accommodated in a variety of spaces including The Yacht Club, overlooking the Charleston Harbor Marina, the Atlantic Ballroom and the Commodore Room, all contributing to more than 40,100 square feet of total indoor and outdoor meeting space. The 30,000 square foot pool area at The Beach Club overlooks the harbor and is just as awe-inspiring as the luxe interiors. A welcome reception at the poolside Tiki-Bar or under the grand porch creates a bold beginning to several days of brainstorming and eleven private cabanas become a great reward for incentive trips and outstanding performance within an organization.

Outside of the boardroom, teambuilding activities embrace the local, southern charm of Charleston as team members take to the streets of downtown in the Charleston Chase Scavenger Hunt or participate in a game of Charleston Feud, where contestants answer questions about their host city. Active is the key word in Beach Olympics, a fierce competition between two teams and their choice of four events: Aqua Blast, Tug-O-War, Obstacle Course, Land Skiing, Fire Brigade, Balloon and Body Relay, Egg Toss and Third Leg Relay. Beach volleyball, ping pong, bocce ball and Giant Jenga are also popular for inciting laughs and breaking down barriers for creative meetings.

Taking teambuilding one step further, the hotel offers a Collaborative Challenge Course. These activities force participants to develop leadership skills and employ patience, to solve puzzles, challenges and obstacles similar to what they experience in their day-to-day work environments.

Relaxation time can be scheduled at the Estuary Spa, a calming oasis with more than 30 services and treatments featuring the popular natural botanical skincare line, Naturopathica.

Easy access to Charleston's historic district is available via water taxi or on board the complimentary resort trolley. Golf, nature trails, complementary bicycle rentals and beach games are offered and three on-site dining options, including the award-winning Charleston Harbor Fish House providing locally sourced and sustainable market fresh menus.

The Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina is located 7 miles from downtown Charleston at 20 Patriots Point Rd. in Mount Pleasant, S.C. 29464. Rates start at $249 per night.
